FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

1. How do I become a class instructor?

Interested instructors must complete and submit an application along with required attachments. Applications will be reviewed by recreation staff, and interviews will be held with applicants whose applications are approved.

2. What are the timelines for submitting my application?

Classes are offered on a trimester basis.

| | |
|---------------------------------------|--|
| If you would like to teach in: | Please submit your application before: |
| Winter/Spring (January through April) | September 15 |
| Summer (May through August) | January 15 |
| Fall (September through December) | May 15 |

3. How are instructors paid?

The City of Olympia offers 3 options for instructors:

- Volunteer Basis

An instructor may choose to volunteer their time in teaching and receive no pay.

The instructor must fill out a volunteer timesheet, and complete a Washington State Patrol Background Check. Like employees, the volunteer is covered by L&I insurance should they suffer any personal physical injury while instructing.

- City of Olympia Hourly Employee

Instructors are paid at an hourly rate (beginning at $13.50/hour and up depending upon experience) which is negotiated between the instructor and the City. They receive no benefits and complete a timesheet twice a month.

- Contractual Employee

The instructor must meet criteria and have current state and city business licenses. Instructor signs agreement for services and the rate of pay is negotiated between the instructor and the City. They receive no benefits and submit an invoice upon completion of the class session to the City.

4. What days of the week can I instruct?

In addition to The Olympia Center, our department has access to city parks and to some school facilities in the evening. Courses can be offered over a wide range of hours throughout the week. The class may be a 1-day course for an hour, a course which spans up to 12 weeks, or anything in between.

5. How much will the class cost participants?

We determine the class fee based on a formula that will reflect the cost of the instructor's salary, room rental expense, supplies, and indirect costs.
