

You are Invited

Neighborhood Training | Speaker John Campbell
Hosted by the Olympia Police Department

Saturday, Oct. 21st

Free to Olympia Neighborhoods

9:00 - 3:30 at City Hall

RSVP Required by Friday, Oct 13, 2017

Amy Stull at 360.753.8049 or astull@ci.olympia.wa.us

olympiawa.gov/policenews

Come and learn more about ...

- Growing neighborhood involvement,
- Solving chronic nuisance problems and
- Improving your neighborhood.

The Olympia Police Department is hosting this training as part of their commitment to working with neighbors to build strong communities, encourage citizen involvement and create strong relationships. We believe by working together we can further enhance the quality of life in our neighborhoods.

Guest Speaker John Campbell

John Campbell of Campbell DeLong Resources, Inc. is a national community policing trainer and consultant who teaches police officers, residents, and landlords the skills necessary to revitalize impacted neighborhoods. A graduate of Harvard University he has provided consulting and training at the national and local level. John's interest in community policing grew out of recognizing the need for such approaches in his own neighborhood. He has experienced firsthand the dangers of living near drug houses and gang activity. He worked with neighbors, landlords, and law enforcement to clear up the problems. Learn more at www.cdri.com.

Olympia Police Department
PO Box 1967
Olympia, WA 98507

Olympia

olympiawa.gov/policenews

The Olympia Police Department is hosting this training as part of their commitment to working with neighbors to build strong communities, encourage citizen involvement and create strong relationships. We believe by working together we can further enhance the quality of life in our neighborhoods.

Guest Speaker John Campbell

John Campbell of Campbell DeLong Resources, Inc. is a national community policing trainer and consultant who teaches police officers, residents, and landlords the skills necessary to revitalize impacted neighborhoods. A graduate of Harvard University he has provided consulting and training at the national and local level.

John's interest in community policing grew out of recognizing the need for such approaches in his own neighborhood. He has experienced firsthand the dangers of living near drug houses and gang activity. He worked with neighbors, landlords, and law enforcement to clear up the problems. Learn more at www.cdri.com.